Special Shabbat Service celebrating move to Ner Maraav

Congregation Shir Ami is moving our home from Kol Tikvah where we enjoyed our first successful ten years to Ner Maraav where we hope to enjoy a successful many more years. The move was primarily to rent from a Conservative congregation that shares our traditions and values.

Temple Ner Maraav is located at 17730 Magnolia Blvd.in Encino at the corner of White Oak Ave. Our Shabbat services will be held at a private section of their Social Hall unless there is a bar/bat mitzvah or other occasion requiring the sanctuary or other area.

Our first Shabbat Service will be Saturday, July 31st. We will carry our Torah into our new home to symbolize our intent to make this home a holy place of worship and community that offers contemporary Conservative Judaism to our members and guests.

Our oneg/kiddush after Shabbat services will be in conjunction with Temple Ner Maraav and prepared by their Sisterhood.

Please join us for this inaugural event we will all want to remember. You may call Harvey Cohen, our Ritual Vice President, at (818) 993-6042 for more information.
